If this sounds like you, visit www.TNPTI.com or come by TN Professional Training Institute to fill out an application today. Tuition and materials fees are due prior to starting class. Due to the advanced, hands-on nature of this course, late enrollment will not be allowed.

EKG Technician Code of Conduct

The TN Professional Training Institute is a peaceful, productive place where students come to study about becoming an EKG Technician. Our goal is to provide a pleasant environment for our students, and we ask that you do the same.

Be respectful of the property and of each other. Try to arrive 10 minutes early for classes.

- All TNPTI students will abide by the TNPTI Code of Honor.
- TNPTI provides complimentary beverages and occasionally food for students to enjoy. Students are also allowed to respectfully consume snacks and drinks during classroom sessions only. Please respect this code.
- When in a clinical environment, students will refrain from chewing gum, eating, and drinking during this time.
- Maintain a Professional clinical environment. To do this, TNPTI students are asked to cover any visible tattoos/body art. Additionally, jewelry is restricted to only one (1) piercing (per lobe) per ear and one (1) wedding band/ring if applicable.
- Students must wear closed-toe and closed-heel footwear and all black scrubs per dress code.

TNPTI Code of Honor

Code Defined: It is presumed that any student who enrolls at TN Professional Training Institute is willing to conform to a pattern of mutual trust and honor and shall deal honorably with all members of the TNPTI community. It must be understood that it is the responsibility of each student, faculty, and staff member to preserve, nurture and strengthen this spirit of honor. TNPTI students shall at all times refrain from and discourage all attempts at falsifying information (lying); making untrue statements and disparaging remarks; cheating, stealing; plagiarism and vandalism. When a violation of the Honor Code is detected, the student(s) involved will be brought to the attention of the instructor and the Institutional Director or the Executive Director, who will come to a mutual agreement upon the disciplinary action appropriate for the action against the TNPTI code of honor.

Violations Defined: "Lying" is defined as any attempt to deceive, falsify, or misrepresent the truth in any matter involving program business. Program business includes, but is not limited to, financial aid information, excuses for absences and statements to instructors and TNPRI Administration in order to reschedule tests or assignments and responses to the queries of TNPTI staff.

"Cheating" is defined as the employment of or rendering of any illicit aid in any assigned work.

"Stealing" is defined as the appropriation of money or property belonging to another person, organization, or the school. This also includes the borrowing of property without the knowledge of the owner.

"Plagiarism" is defined as presenting as one's own work the words or ideas of an author or fellow student. Students should document quotes through quotation marks and footnotes or other accepted citation methods. Ignorance of these rules concerning plagiarism is not an excuse. When in doubt, students should seek clarification from the instructor who assigned the task.

"Vandalism" is defined as intentional, malicious damage to university property or property belonging to others.

Penalties: The directors may, for any first offense violation of the TNPTI Code of Honor, impose immediate dismissal of the student for the remainder of program (depending on the severity of the violation). Dismissed students will not receive a refund for tuition monies paid. Readmission for a student will be granted at the discretion of the Institutional Director.

TNPTI Dress Code

- All students must wear black scrubs during classroom hours.
- All Students must wear closed toe and closed heel shoes during classroom hours.
- The students must wear their hair up if hair length is longer than shoulder length.
- Acrylic nails are not permitted during classroom hours. Natural nails can be painted in French tip or in a clear color. Colored nail polish other than clear is not permitted.
- Lab coats provided by the school should be worn during clinical/lab hours.
- PPEs should be worn at all times during clinical hours.

EKG Technician Attendance Requirements

The TN Professional Training Institute's EKG technician training program is an intensive, accelerated, 60-hour program. Students who miss class or their externship can be dismissed and may be moved to the next session at the discretion of the instructor. Arriving late or leaving early may result in an absence.

TNPTI offers its students the opportunity to make up class hours in the next scheduled term when discussed and arranged in advance with the administration.

EKG Technician Program Grievance Policy

While we do our best to provide a friendly, conducive environment for learning at the Tennessee Professional Training Institute, we do understand that conflict may arise. Because we go out of our way to create a positive learning environment, if there is a misunderstanding between students or instructor, parties involved are encouraged to communicate directly in an attempt to work out any misunderstanding.

If the issue has not been resolved after communication attempts have been made, students may get in contact with the Institutional Director, Nancy Schott, at 1630 S. Church St., Suite 302 Murfreesboro, TN 37130 and can be reached by phone at 615-631-8440. The director may ask students to submit their grievance in writing or it may be accepted verbally depending on the nature of the grievance. The Institutional Director will act on the grievance and inform all involved parties of their discussion verbally or in writing within 7 business days of receiving the complaint. All grievances must be submitted no later than seven (7) days from the final day of the course completion.

Any person claiming damage or loss as a result of any act or practice by this institution that may be a violation of the Title 49, Chapter 7, Part 20 or Rule Chapter 1540-01-02 may file a complaint with the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, Division of Postsecondary Authorization after exhausting the grievance process at the institution.

If a student feels that the issue has not been addressed satisfactorily, after having communicated with the Institutional Director at TNPTI then they are asked to write a letter to the Tennessee Higher Education Commission at the following address for issue resolution:

TN Professional Training Institute - Refund & Cancellation Policy

Any student enrolling in a course at TN Professional Training Institute is eligible for a full refund if the student withdraws from TN Professional Training Institute on or before the first day of classes or fails to begin class on the start date as written in the enrollment agreement. The refund shall equal the sum of all amounts paid or to be paid by or on behalf of the student for the period of enrollment, less an administrative fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). If the student has institutional loans, this will include forgiveness of the amounts owed by the student, less an administrative fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

If, after classes have commenced, a student who has enrolled in any TN Professional Training Institute course withdraws, drops out, is expelled, or otherwise fails to attend classes after the first day and until 20% of the course is in session, the refund shall be a pro rata portion of amounts paid, less an administrative fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). If applicable, the refund shall include forgiveness of institutional loans. For example, if a student's last day of attendance equals ten percent (10%) of the enrollment period of enrollment, for which the student was charged, TN Professional Training Institute is only entitled to retain ten percent (10%) of the amount paid as well as an administrative fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). However, in no instance will TN Professional Training Institute be responsible for any refund in excess of the amount paid by or on behalf of the student.

If, after classes have commenced, a student who has enrolled in any course at TN Professional Training Institute withdraws, drops out, is expelled, or otherwise fails to attend classes after 20% of the course, the student is responsible for one hundred percent (100%) of the tuition, fees and other charges assessed by the TN Professional Training Institute and will not be issued a refund.

A student who at any time withdraws, is withdrawn by the institution, or otherwise fails to attend class is entitled to a full refund of any fee for tangible goods or services not delivered to or fully provided to the student.

The refund request must be made in writing via email to info@tnpti.com within 10 days of the first day of missed class.

TN Professional Training Institute Program Credit Transferability

Contact hours earned at TN Professional Training Institute may not transfer to another educational institution. Contact hours earned at another educational institution may not be accepted by TN Professional Training Institute. You should obtain confirmation that TN Professional Training Institute will accept any contact hours you have earned at another educational institution before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer contact hours earned at TN Professional Training Institute to determine if such institutions will accept hours earned at TN Professional Training Institute prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement. The ability to transfer hours from TN Professional Training Institute to another educational institution may be very limited. Your contact hours may not transfer, and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at TN Professional Training Institute if you enroll in another educational institution. You should never assume that contact hours will transfer to or from any educational institution.
